DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

PLAINTIFF'S FIRST AMENDED COLLECTIVE COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Zoe Harris ("Plaintiff"), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, alleges the following upon information and belief, based upon investigation of counsel, published reports, and personal knowledge:

I. NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff alleges causes of action against defendants R & R RESTAURANTS, INC. dba SASSY'S ("Sassy's"), an Oregon Corporation, STACY MAYHOOD, an individual, IAN HANNIGAN, an individual, FRANK FAILLACE, an individual, and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, (collectively, "Defendants") for damages due to Defendants evading the mandatory minimum wage provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201, et seq. ("FLSA"), illegally absconding with Plaintiff's tips and demanding illegal kickbacks including in the form of "House Fees."

2. These causes of action arise from Defendants' willful actions while Plaintiff was employed by Defendants in 2018 through February 2019. During her time being employed by Defendants, Plaintiff was denied minimum wage payments as part of Defendants' scheme to classify Plaintiff and other dancers/entertainers as "independent contractors."

3. Plaintiff worked at Defendants' facility, Sassy's located at 927 SE Morrison Street, Portland, Oregon 97214.

4. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff minimum wages for all hours worked in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 206 of the FLSA.

5. Furthermore, Defendants' practice of failing to pay tipped employees pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 203(m), violates the FLSA's minimum wage provision. See 29 U.S.C. § 206.

6. Plaintiff brings a collective action to recover the unpaid overtime compensation and minimum wage owed to her individually and on behalf of all other similarly situated employees, current and former, of Defendants. Members of the Collective Action are hereinafter referred to as "FLSA Collective Members."

7. As a result of Defendants' violations, Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Members seek to recover double damages for failure to pay minimum wage, interest, and attorneys' fees.

II. PARTIES

8. At all times relevant, Plaintiff was an individual adult resident of the State of Oregon. Furthermore, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and qualifies as an "employee" of Defendants as defined by the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(e)(1). Her consent to this action is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

9. The FLSA Collective Members are all current and former exotic dancers who worked at Sassy's located at 927 SE Morrison Street, Portland, Oregon 97214 at any time starting three (3) years before this Complaint was filed, up to the present.

10. Defendant R & R Restaurants, Inc. ("Sassy's") is an Oregon corporation with its principal place of business located at 927 SE Morrison Street, Portland, Oregon 97214. At all times mentioned herein, Sassy's was an "employer" or "joint employer" as defined by the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d) and (g). Sassy's may be served via its agent for service of process, Stacy Mayhood, at 927 SE Morrison Street, Portland, Oregon 97214.

11. Defendant Stacy Mayhood ("Mayhood") was/is one of the main manager(s)/owner(s) who executed the policies regarding payment to dancers and management of dancers, including Plaintiff.

12. Mayhood acted directly or indirectly on behalf of Sassy's, and, at all times mentioned herein were "employer(s)" or "joint employer(s)" of Plaintiff within the meaning of the FLSA. She exerted operational and management control over Sassy's, including day to day management. She was, and is, frequently present at, owns, directs, controls and manages the operations at Sassy's. She also controls the nature, pay structure, and employment relationship of Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Members. Mayhood had at all times relevant to this lawsuit, the authority to hire and fire employees at Sassy's, the authority to direct and supervise the work of employees, the authority to sign on the business' checking accounts, including payroll accounts, and the authority to make decisions regarding employee compensation and capital expenditures. Additionally, she was responsible for the day-to-day affairs of Sassy's. In particular, she was responsible for determining whether Sassy's complied with the FLSA.

13. Defendant Ian Hannigan ("Hannigan") was/is one of the main manager(s)/director(s) who executed the policies regarding payment to dancers and management of dancers, including Plaintiff.

14. Hannigan "acted directly or indirectly on behalf of Sassy's, and, at all times mentioned herein were "employer(s)" or "joint employer(s)" of Plaintiff within the meaning of the FLSA. He exerted operational and management control over Sassy's, including day to day management. He was, and is, frequently present at, owns, directs, controls and manages the operations at Sassy's. He also controls the nature, pay structure, and employment relationship of Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Members. Hannigan had at all times relevant to this lawsuit, the authority to hire and fire employees at Sassy's, the authority to direct and supervise the work of employees, the authority to sign on the business' checking accounts, including payroll accounts, and the authority to make decisions regarding employee compensation and capital expenditures. Additionally, he was responsible for the day-to-day affairs of Sassy's. In particular, he was responsible for determining whether Sassy's complied with the FLSA.

15. Defendant Frank Faillace ("Faillace") was/is one of the main manager(s)/director(s) who executed the policies regarding payment to dancers and management of dancers, including Plaintiff.

16. Faillace "acted directly or indirectly on behalf of Sassy's, and, at all times mentioned herein were "employer(s)" or "joint employer(s)" of Plaintiff within the meaning of the FLSA. He exerted operational and management control over Sassy's, including day to day management. He was, and is, frequently present at, owns, directs, controls and manages the operations at Sassy's. He also controls the nature, pay structure, and employment relationship of Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Members. Faillace had at all times relevant to this lawsuit, the authority to hire and fire employees at Sassy's, the authority to direct and supervise the work of employees, the authority to sign on the business' checking accounts, including payroll accounts, and the authority to make decisions regarding employee compensation and capital expenditures. Additionally, he was responsible for the day-to-day affairs of Sassy's. In particular, he was responsible for determining whether Sassy's complied with the FLSA.

17. DOES 2-10 are the managers/owners/employees or agents who control the policies and enforce the policies related to employment at Sassy's.

18. The true names, capacities or involvement, whether individual, corporate, governmental or associate, of the Defendants named herein as DOES 2 through 10, inclusive are unknown to Plaintiff who therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff prays for leave to amend this Complaint to show their true names and capacities when the same have been finally determined. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and upon such information and belief alleges thereon, that each of the Defendants designated herein as DOE is negligently, intentionally, strictly liable or otherwise legally responsible in some manner for the events and happenings herein referred to, and negligently, strictly liable intentionally or otherwise caused injury and damages proximately thereby to Plaintiff, as is hereinafter alleged.

19. At all material times, Defendants have been an enterprise in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 203(r)(1) of the FLSA because they have had employees at their clubs engaged in commerce, which has travelled in interstate commerce. Moreover, because of Defendants' interrelated activities, they function in interstate commerce. 29 U.S.C. § 203(s)(1).

20. Furthermore, Defendants have had, and continue to have, an annual gross business volume in excess of the statutory standard.

21. At all material times during the three (3) years prior to the filing of this action, Defendants categorized all dancers/entertainers employed at Sassy's as "independent contractors" and have failed and refused to pay wages or compensation to such dancers/entertainers. Plaintiff was an individual employee who engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce as required by 29 U.S.C. §§ 206-207.

22. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times herein, Defendants engaged in the acts alleged herein and/or condoned, permitted, authorized, and/or ratified the conduct of its employees and agents, and other Defendants and are vicariously or strictly liable for the wrongful conduct of its employees and agents as alleged herein.

23. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges that, each of the Defendants acted, in all respects pertinent to this action, as the agent or employee of each other, and carried out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respect thereto and, therefore, the acts of each of these Defendants are legally attributable to the other Defendants, and that these Defendants, in all respects, acted as employers and/or joint employers of Plaintiff in that each of them exercised control over her wage payments and control over her duties.

24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges that, at all relevant times, each and every Defendant has been the agent, employee, representative, servant, master, employer, owner, agent, joint venture, and alter ego of each of the other and each was acting within the course and scope of his or her ownership, agency, service, joint venture and employment.

25. At all times mentioned herein, each and every Defendant was the successor of the other and each assumes the responsibility for the acts and omissions of all other Defendants.

III. VENUE AND JURISDICTION

26. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this action arises under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201, et seq.

27. Plaintiff's state law claims for relief are within the supplemental jurisdiction of the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

28. Venue is proper in this District because all or a substantial portion of the events forming the basis of this action occurred in this District. Defendants' club is located in this District and Plaintiff worked in this District.

IV. ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

A. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

29. Defendants operate an adult-oriented entertainment facility located at 927 SE Morrison Street, Portland, Oregon 97214.

30. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants were “employer(s)” or “joint employer(s)” of Plaintiff.

31. At all times during the three (3) years prior to the filing of the instant action, Defendants categorized all dancers/entertainers employed by Defendants as “independent contractors” and have failed and refused to pay wages to such dancers.

32. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants exercised a great deal of operational and management control over the subject clubs, particularly in the areas of terms and conditions of employment applicable to dancers and entertainers.

33. Plaintiff worked as an exotic dancer for Defendants from at 2018 through February 2019.

34. The primary duty of an entertainer is to dance and entertain customers, and give them a good experience. Specifically, an entertainer performs stage and table dances, and entertains customers on an hourly basis.

35. Stated differently, entertainers dance on stage, perform table dances, and entertain customers in VIP rooms, all while semi-nude.

36. Plaintiff worked and performed at the adult-oriented entertainment facility multiple shifts per week. Plaintiff was an integral part of Defendants’ business which operated solely as an adult-oriented entertainment facility featuring semi-nude female entertainers.

37. Defendants did not pay entertainers on an hourly basis.

38. Defendants exercised significant control over Plaintiff during her shifts and would demand that Plaintiff pay to work a particular shift.

39. Defendants set prices for all performances.

40. Defendants set the daily cover charge for customers and/or members to enter the facility and had complete control over which customers and/or members were allowed in the facility.

41. Defendants controlled music for Plaintiff's performances.

42. Defendants controlled the means and manner in which Plaintiff could perform.

43. Defendants had the authority to suspend, fine, fire, or otherwise discipline entertainers for non-compliance with their rules regarding dancing.

44. Defendants actually suspended, fined, fired, or otherwise disciplined entertainers for non-compliance with their rules regarding dancing.

45. Although Defendants allowed entertainers to choose their own costumes, Defendants reserved the right to decide what a particular entertainer was allowed to wear on the premises. In order to comply with Sassy's' dress and appearance standards, Plaintiff typically expended approximately an hour of time each shift getting ready for work without being paid any wages for such time getting ready.

46. Plaintiff was compensated exclusively through tips from Defendants' customers. That is, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff whatsoever for any hours worked at their establishment.

47. Defendants also required Plaintiff to share her tips with Defendants, and other non-service employees who do not customarily receive tips, such as the managers, disc jockeys, and the bouncers.

48. Defendants are in violation of the FLSA's tipped-employee compensation provision, 29 U.S.C. § 203(m), which requires employers to pay a tipped employee a minimum of $2.13 per hour. Defendants also violated 29 U.S.C. § 203(m) when they failed to notify Plaintiff about the tip credit allowance (including the amount to be credited) before the credit was utilized. That is, Defendants' exotic dancers were never made aware of how the tip credit allowance worked or what the amounts to be credited were. Furthermore, Defendants violated 29 U.S.C. § 203(m) because they did not allow Plaintiff to retain all of her tips and instead required that she divide her tips amongst other employees who do not customarily and regularly receive tips. Because Defendants violated the tip-pool law, Defendants lose the right to take a credit toward minimum wage.

49. Defendants exercised significant control over Plaintiff through written and unwritten policies and procedures.

50. Defendants provided and paid for all advertising and marketing efforts undertaken on behalf of Sassy's.

51. Defendants paid for the buildings used by Sassy's maintenance of the facilities, the sound systems, stages, lights, beverages and inventory used at the facilities.

52. Defendants made all hiring decisions regarding wait staff, security, entertainers, managerial and all other employees on the premises.

53. Defendants' opportunity for profit and loss far exceeded Plaintiff's opportunity for profit and loss from work at Sassy's.

54. Semi-nude dancing is an integral part of Sassy's operations. Sassy's advertising prominently displays semi-nude dancing for its customers. Sassy's is well known as a "strip club."

55. Defendants need entertainers to successfully and profitably operate the Sassy's business model.

56. The position of entertainer requires no managerial skill of others.

57. The position of entertainer requires little other skill or education, formal or otherwise.

58. The only requirements to become an entertainer at Sassy's are "physical attributes" and the ability to dance seductively. The amount of skill required is more akin to an employment position than that of a typical independent contractor.

59. Defendants failed to maintain records of wages, fines, fees, tips and gratuities and/or service charges paid or received by entertainers.

60. Plaintiff was not paid an hourly minimum wage or any hourly wage or salary despite being present at Defendants' facility and required to work and entertain its customers at any time during her work shift.

61. Plaintiff was not paid an hourly minimum wage for the typical two (2) hours of time expended prior to each shift to get ready for work, including applying makeup and hair, and to comply with Defendants' dress and appearance standards. Plaintiff estimates that she spent approximately five hundred U.S. Dollars ($500.00) annually on makeup, hair-related expenses and outfits.

62. The FLSA Collective Members had the same pay structure and were under the same controls as Plaintiff.

63. Defendants have never paid Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Members any amount as wages whatsoever, and have instead unlawfully required Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Members to pay them for the privilege of working.

64. The only source of monies received by Plaintiff (and the Collective she seeks to represent) relative to her employment with Defendants came in the form of gratuities received directly from customers, a portion of which Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Members were required to pay to Defendants.

65. Defendants' method of paying Plaintiff in violation of the FLSA was willful and was not based on a good faith and reasonable belief that its conduct complied with the FLSA. Defendants misclassified Plaintiff with the sole intent to avoid paying her in accordance to the FLSA; the fees and fines described herein constitute unlawful "kickbacks" to the employer within the meaning of the FLSA, and Plaintiffs are entitled to restitution of such fines and fees.

66. Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Members who worked at Sassy's performed precisely the same job duties - dancing and entertaining at Sassy's.

67. Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Members who worked at Sassy's during the applicable limitations period(s) were subject to the same work rules established by the Defendants as identified above.

68. Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Members at Sassy's were subject to the terms and conditions of employment and the same degree of control, direction, supervision, promotion and investment imposed or performed by Defendants.

69. Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Members at Sassy's during the applicable limitations period(s) were subject to the same across-the-board, uniformly applied corporate policy mandated by Defendants.

70. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Members at Sassy's, during the applicable limitations period, were subject to the same fees and fines imposed by Defendants.

71. Defendants required Plaintiff to pay fees to Defendants and other Sassy's employees, such as managers, DJs and doormen.

72. Defendants required Plaintiff to pay fees to Defendants and other Sassy's employees for reasons other than the pooling of tips among employees who customarily and regularly received tips.

73. As a result of Defendants' across-the-board, standard operating procedure of mischaracterizing dancers/entertainers as "independent contractors" and their consequent failure to pay any wages or compensation whatsoever, it is a certainty that numerous other current and former dancers and entertainers who worked at Sassy's during the applicable limitations period would elect to participate in this action if provided notice of same.

74. Upon information and belief, more than one hundred (100) dancers and entertainers have worked at Sassy's during the three (3) to five (5) years prior to the filing of this action.

75. Plaintiff is “similarly situated” to the 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) class of persons she seeks to represent, and will adequately represent the interests of the class.

76. Plaintiff has hired Counsel experienced in class actions and in collective actions under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) who will adequately represent the class.

77. Defendants failed to keep records of tips, gratuities and/or service charges paid to Plaintiff or any other entertainer and failed to maintain and furnish wage statements to Plaintiff.

78. Federal law mandates that an employer is required to keep for three (3) years all payroll records and other records containing, among other things, the following information:

- a. The time of day and day of week on which the employees’ work week begins;
- b. The regular hourly rate of pay for any workweek in which overtime compensation is due under 29 U.S.C. § 207(a);
- c. An explanation of the basis of pay by indicating the monetary amount paid on a per hour, per day, per week, or other basis;
- d. The amount and nature of each payment which, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 207(e), is excluded from the “regular rate”;
- e. The hours worked each workday and total hours worked each workweek;
- f. The total daily or weekly straight time earnings or wages due for hours worked during the workday or workweek, exclusive of premium overtime compensation;
- g. The total premium for overtime hours. This amount excludes the straight-time earnings for overtime hours recorded under this section;
- h. The total additions to or deductions from wages paid each pay period including employee purchase orders or wage assignments;
- i. The dates, amounts, and nature of the items which make up the total additions and deductions;
- j. The total wages paid each pay period; and

k. The date of payment and the pay period covered by payment.

29 C.F.R. 516.2, 516.5.

79. Defendants have not complied with federal law and have failed to maintain such records with respect to Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Members. Because Defendants' records are inaccurate and/or inadequate, Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Members can meet their burden under the FLSA by proving that they, in fact, performed work for which they were improperly compensated, and produce sufficient evidence to show the amount and extent of their work "as a matter of a just and reasonable inference." See, e.g., Anderson v. Mt. Clemens Pottery Co., 328 U.S. 680, 687 (1946). Plaintiff seeks to put Defendants on notice that she intends to rely on Anderson to provide the extent of her unpaid work.

80. After Plaintiff's initial Complaint was filed on June 28, 2021, Plaintiff was scheduled and confirmed to work for another club owned by Defendants named Dante's. On or around July 19, 2021, Defendants informed Plaintiff that she would no longer be permitted to work at Dante's because of her initiating an action against them. This was in direct retaliation for Claimant asserting her rights under the FLSA. Defendants are "any person" who retaliates within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. §§ 203(d) and 215(a)(3).

B. INDIVIDUAL LIABILITY UNDER THE FLSA

81. In Boucher v. Shaw, 572 F.3d 1087 (9th Cir. 2009), the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit held that individuals can be liable for FLSA violations under an expansive interpretation of "employer." Id. at 1088. The FLSA defines "employer" as "any person acting directly or indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee." 29 U.S.C. § 203(d). The Ninth Circuit stated that the definition of "employer" under FLSA is not limited by the common law concept of "employer" but "is to be given an expansive interpretation in order to effectuate the FLSA's broad remedial purposes."

82. Where an individual exercises "control over the nature and structure of the employment relationship," or "economic control" over the relationship, that individual is an employer within the meaning of the FLSA, and is subject to liability. Lambert v. Ackerley, 180 F.3d 997 (9th Cir. 1999). The Ninth Circuit highlighted factors related to “economic control,” which included ownership interest, operational control of significant aspects of the day-to-day functions, the power to hire and fire employees, determine salaries, and the responsibility to maintain employment records.

83. Mayhood, Hannigan, and Faillace individually liable for failing to pay Plaintiff her wages. The actual identities of DOES 2-10 are unknown at this time.

V. COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

84. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1-82 as though fully set forth herein.

85. Plaintiff brings this action as an FLSA collective action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) on behalf of all persons who were or are employed by Defendants as exotic dancers/entertainers at any time during the three (3) years prior to the commencement of this action to present.

86. Plaintiff has actual knowledge that FLSA Collective Members have also been denied overtime pay for hours worked over forty (40) hours per workweek and have been denied pay at the federally mandated minimum wage rate. That is, Plaintiff worked with other dancers/entertainers at Sassy’s. As such, she has firsthand personal knowledge of the same pay violations throughout Defendants’ club. Furthermore, other exotic dancers/entertainers at Defendants’ club have shared with her similar pay violation experiences as those described in this Complaint.

87. FLSA Collective Members perform or have performed the same or similar work as the Plaintiff.

88. FLSA Collective Members regularly work or have worked in excess of forty (40) hours during a workweek.

89. FLSA Collective Members regularly work or have worked and did not receive minimum wage.

90. FLSA Collective Members are not exempt from receiving overtime and/or pay at the federally mandated minimum wage rate under the FLSA.

91. As such, FLSA Collective Members are similar to Plaintiff in terms of job duties, pay structure, misclassification as independent contractors and/or the denial of overtime and minimum wage.

92. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and hours worked at the minimum wage rate required by the FLSA results from generally applicable policies or practices, and does not depend on the personal circumstances of the FLSA Collective Members.

93. The experiences of Plaintiff, with respect to her pay, are typical of the experiences of the FLSA Collective Members.

94. The specific job titles or precise job responsibilities of each FLSA Collective Member does not prevent collective treatment.

95. All FLSA Collective Members, irrespective of their particular job requirements, are entitled to overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of forty (40) during a workweek.

96. All FLSA Collective Members, irrespective of their particular job requirements, are entitled to compensation for hours worked at the federally mandated minimum wage rate.

97. Although the exact number of damages may vary among FLSA Collective Members, the damages for the FLSA Collective Members can be easily calculated by a simple formula. The claims of all FLSA Collective Members arise from a common nucleus of facts. Liability is based on a systematic course of wrongful conduct by the Defendant that caused harm to all FLSA Collective Members.

98. As such, Plaintiff brings her FLSA claims as a collective action on behalf of the following class:

All of Defendants' current and former exotic dancers/entertainers who worked at Sassy's in Portland, Oregon at any time starting three years before this Complaint was filed.

VI. CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGE PURSUANT TO FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 206 (By Plaintiff Individually and on Behalf of the Collective Against All Defendants)

99. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

100. Defendants are engaged in "commerce" and/or in the production of "goods" for "commerce" as those terms are defined in the FLSA.

101. Defendants operate an enterprise engaged in commerce within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(s)(1), because it has employees engaged in commerce, and because its annual gross volume of sales made is more than five hundred thousand U.S. Dollars ($500,000), or one hundred twenty-five thousand U.S. Dollars ($125,000) during a relevant quarter.

102. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the minimum wage in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 206.

103. Based upon the conduct alleged herein, Defendants knowingly, intentionally and willfully violated the FLSA by not paying Plaintiff the minimum wage under the FLSA.

104. Throughout the relevant period of this lawsuit, there is no evidence that Defendants' conduct that gave rise to this action was in good faith and based on reasonable grounds. In fact, Defendants continued to violate the FLSA long after it learned that its misclassification scheme and compensation policies were illegal.

105. Due to Defendants' FLSA violations, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from

Defendants, minimum wage compensation and an equal amount in the form of liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, including interest, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

ILLEGAL KICKBACKS, 29 C.F.R. § 531.35

(By Plaintiff Individually and on Behalf of the Collective Against All Defendants)

106. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

107. Defendants required Plaintiff to pay monetary fees to Defendants and other Sassy's employees who did not work in positions that are customarily and regularly tipped, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 203(m).

108. Defendants' requirement that Plaintiff pay fees to Defendants and other Sassy's employees violated the "free and clear" requirement of 29 C.F.R. § 531.35.

109. Because Defendants violated the "free and clear" requirement of 29 C.F.R. § 531.35 as alleged above, they were not entitled to utilize the FLSA's tip-credit provision with respect to Plaintiff's wages.

110. Because Defendants violated the "free and clear" requirement of 29 C.F.R. § 531.35, all monetary fees imposed on Plaintiff are classified as illegal kickbacks.

111. Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants all fees that Defendants required Plaintiff to pay in order to work at Sassy's, involving but not limited to house fees and tip sharing.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

UNLAWFUL TAKING OF TIPS IN VIOLATION OF THE FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203

(By Plaintiff Individually and on Behalf of the Collective Against All Defendants)

112. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

113. Plaintiff customarily and regularly received more than thirty U.S. Dollars ($30.00) a month in tips and therefore is a tipped employee as defined in the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §

203(t), see also 29 C.F.R. § 531.50.

114. At all relevant times, each Defendants were “employer(s)” or “joint employer(s)” of Plaintiff within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d).

115. Defendants are engaged in “commerce” and/or in the production of “goods” for “commerce” as those terms are defined in the FLSA.

116. Defendants operate an enterprise engaged in commerce within the meaning for the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(s)(1), because it has employees engaged in commerce, and because its annual gross volume of sales made is more than five hundred thousand U.S. Dollars ($500,000).

117. Under the Tip Income Protection Act (“TIPA”):

[a]n employer may not keep tips received by its employees for any purpose including allowing managers or supervisors to keep any portion of employees’ tips, regardless of whether or not it takes a tip credit.

29 U.S.C. § 203 (m)(2)(B).

118. Defendants kept a portion of tips paid to Plaintiff by Defendants’ customers in the form of fees, fines, mandatory charges and other payments to management, disc jockeys, and door men in violation of TIPA.

119. Defendants required Plaintiff to participate in an illegal tip pool, which included employees who do not customarily and regularly receive tips, and do not have more than a de minimis, if any, interaction with customer leaving the tips (such as the Club DJ, security, and management). See U.S. Dep’t of Labor, Wage and Hour Division, “Fact Sheet # 15: Tipped employees under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA).”

120. The contribution Defendants required Plaintiff to make after each shift was arbitrary and capricious and distribution was not agreed to by Plaintiff other dancers; but rather, was imposed upon Plaintiff and other dancers.

121. By requiring Plaintiff to pool her tips with club management, including the individual Defendants named herein, Defendants “retained” a portion of the tips received by Plaintiff in violation of the FLSA.

122. Defendants did not make any effort, let alone a “good faith” effort, to comply with the FLSA as it relates to compensation owed to Plaintiff.

123. At the time of their illegal conduct, Defendants knew or showed reckless disregard that the tip-pool which they required Plaintiff to contribute included non-tipped employees and, therefore, was statutorily illegal. In spite of this, Defendants willfully failed and refused to pay Plaintiff the proper amount of the tips to which she was entitled.

124. Defendants’ willful failure and refusal to pay Plaintiff the tips she earned violates the FLSA.

125. Defendants kept a portion of tips paid to Plaintiff by Defendants’ customers in the form of fees, fines, mandatory charges and other payments to management, house moms, disc jockeys, and door men in violation of TIPA.

126. As a result of the acts and omissions of the Defendants as alleged herein, and pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §§ 216(b) and 260, Plaintiff is entitled to damages in the form of all misappropriated tips, plus interest; as liquated damages, an amount equal to all misappropriated tips, mandatory attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FORCED TIPPING, 29 C.F.R. § 531.35

(By Plaintiff Individually and on Behalf of the Collective Against All Defendants)

127. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

128. Defendants required Plaintiff to pay monetary fees to other Sassy’s employees who did not work in positions that are customarily and regularly tipped, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 203(m).

129. Defendants' requirement that Plaintiff pay fees to other Sassy's employees violated the "free and clear" requirement of 29 C.F.R. § 531.35.

130. Because Defendants violated the "free and clear" requirement of 29 C.F.R. § 531.35 as alleged above, they were not entitled to utilize the FLSA's tip-credit provision with respect to Plaintiff's wages.

131. Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants all fees that Defendants required Plaintiff to pay other employees in order to work at Sassy's, involving but not limited to forced tip sharing.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

RETALIATION IN VIOLATION OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT (By Plaintiff Individually Against Defendant Frank Faillace)

132. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

133. After Plaintiff's initial Complaint was filed on June 28, 2021, Plaintiff was scheduled and confirmed to work for another club owned by Faillace named Dante's. On or around July 19, 2021, Faillace informed Plaintiff that she would no longer be permitted to work at Dante's because of her initiating an action against Sassy's. This was in direct retaliation for Claimant asserting her rights under the FLSA.

134. Faillace is "any person" who retaliates within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. §§ 203(d) and 215(a)(3).

135. The scope of the prohibition contained in 29 U.S.C. § 215(a)(3)—which states that it is "unlawful for any person . . . to discharge or in any other manner discriminate against any employee" for making a complaint under the Act, 29 U.S.C. § 215(a)(3) (emphasis added)—includes retaliators who may not qualify as an employee's actual "employer" for purposes of the Act's overtime pay requirements (as well as the statute's other substantive economic provisions, such as its minimum wage requirements).

136. Claimant is, therefore, entitled to recover damages, and also to recover costs, interest, and attorney's fees as provided under the FLSA.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

RETALIATION FOR BRINGING A CIVIL PROCEEDING, ORS 659A.230
(By Plaintiff Individually Against Defendant Frank Faillace)

137. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

138. After Plaintiff's initial Complaint was filed on June 28, 2021, Plaintiff was scheduled and confirmed to work for another club owned by Faillace named Dante's. On or around July 19, 2021, Faillace informed Plaintiff that she would no longer be permitted to work at Dante's because of her initiating an action against Sassy's. This was in direct retaliation for Claimant asserting her rights under the FLSA.

139. It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to in any manner discriminate or retaliate against an employee with regard to terms, conditions or privileges of employment for the reason that the employee has in good faith brought a civil proceeding against an employer.

140. Faillace' actions as alleged herein were done singularly and as part of a systematic pattern of conduct in response to Plaintiff filing this action alleging misclassification and nonpayment of wages, in violation of ORS 659A.230.

141. It is an unlawful employment practice pursuant to ORS 659A.030(1)(f) for any person to discriminate or retaliate against any other person because that other person has opposed any unlawful practice under ORS chapter 659A or has attempted to do so.

142. Faillace is a person for purposes of ORS 659A.030(1)(f). He acted to discriminate and/or retaliate against Plaintiff as alleged herein and is individually liable for such conduct.

143. Claimant is, therefore, entitled to recover damages, attorneys' fees and costs, and injunctive relief as permitted by law.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

RETALIATION IN VIOLATION OF PUBLIC POLICY
(By Plaintiff Individually Against Defendant Frank Faillace)

144. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

145. After Plaintiff's initial Complaint was filed on June 28, 2021, Plaintiff was scheduled and confirmed to work for another club owned by Faillace named Dante's. On or around July 19, 2021, Faillace informed Plaintiff that she would no longer be permitted to work at Dante's because of her initiating an action against Sassy's. This was in direct retaliation for Claimant asserting her rights under the FLSA.

146. As set forth above, Faillace wrongfully retaliated against Plaintiff in violation of important and well-established public policies, as set forth in various statutes and other provisions including, but not limited to the FLSA and ORS 659A.230.

147. By Defendants' aforesaid acts and omissions, Plaintiff has been directly and legally caused to suffer actual damages including, but not limited to, loss of earnings, and other such losses in an amount according to proof at the time of trial.

148. In committing the aforesaid acts and omissions, Respondents acted despicably and subjected, and continue to subject, Plaintiff to cruel and unjust hardship in conscious disregard for Plaintiff's rights under Oregon law. Faillace's conduct demonstrates a callous indifference for the law and Plaintiff's rights for which punitive and/or exemplary damages must be awarded.

149. In committing the aforesaid acts and omissions, Faillace willfully disregarded Plaintiff's right to be free from unlawful retaliation.

150. Claimant is, therefore, entitled to recover damages, attorneys' fees and costs, and injunctive relief as permitted by law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests of this Court the following relief:

1. For compensatory damages according to proof at trial of at least $100,000;
2. For special damages according to proof at trial;
3. For restitution of unpaid monies;
4. For attorneys' fees;
5. For costs of suit incurred herein;
6. For statutory penalties;
7. For civil penalties;
8. For pre-judgment interest;
9. For post-judgement interest;
10. For general damages in an amount to be proven at trial;
11. For declaratory relief;
12. For injunctive relief; and
13. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
